

Citation Elements in order:

- 1 Article author: Charles Mandel
- 2 Article title: Ocean expedition reveals bizarre creatures of the deep
- 3 Newspaper title: Calgary Herald
- 4 Format: Online
- 5 Publication date: 1 Aug 2007
- 6 Page number: D4
- 7 Database name: Library PressDisplay
- 8 URL: <http://library.pressdisplay.com/pressdisplay/viewer.aspx>
- 9 Date of access: August 2, 2007

Document Example:

The screenshot shows a digital newspaper page from the Calgary Herald. The main article is titled "Ocean expedition reveals bizarre creatures of the deep" and is written by Charles Mandel. The article features a photograph of a robot capturing a rare image off the East Coast. The interface includes a navigation bar at the top with the "LIBRARY PRESSDISPLAY" logo and a search bar. The article is displayed in a grid layout with other news items like "UN commits peacekeepers to Darfur" and "Printers may be hazardous to your health". A separate box at the bottom of the article displays the title and author information.

Bibliographic Reference Citation

Bibliographic references are single-spaced and are indented after the first line:

Mandel, C. Ocean Expedition Reveals Bizarre Creatures of the Deep. Calgary Herald, [Online], August 1, 2007, p A5. Library PressDisplay. <http://library.pressdisplay.com/pressdisplay/viewer.aspx> (accessed August 2, 2007).

Author-Date Reference

Author-date references are placed in context and are formatted like so:

(Mandel, 2007)