

Citation Elements in order:

- ❶ Author: Loch K. Johnson
- ❷ Publication date: 2000
- ❸ Title: Bombs, Bugs, Drugs and Thugs: Intelligence and America's Quest for Security
- ❹ Place of publication: New York and London
- ❺ Publisher: New York University Press

Document Example:

The diagram illustrates the placement of citation elements on the book's covers. On the front cover, the author's name (❶) is at the top, the title (❸) is in the center, and the publisher's name (❺) is at the bottom. On the back cover, the publisher's name (❷) is at the top, followed by copyright information (❷), and a detailed library cataloging entry (❷) in the center. The cataloging entry includes the title, author, ISBN, and other publication details.

Bibliographic Reference Citation

- ❶ Johnson, L. K. ❷ (2000). ❸ Bombs, bugs, drugs and thugs: Intelligence and America's quest for security.
- ❹ New York and London: ❺ New York University Press.

Johnson, L. K. (2000). Bombs, bugs, drugs and thugs: Intelligence and America's quest for security. New York and London: New York University Press.

References in Text

(❶ Johnson, ❷ 2000)

(Johnson, 2000)

OR

❶ Johnson (❷ 2000) addresses the issue of national security.

Johnson (2000) addresses the issue of national security.

For more information about each part of the citation and for examples of page formatting of references see:

<http://citesource.trincoll.edu/apa/index.html>