

Citation Elements in order:

- ❶ Lecturer's name: Yang Yao
- ❷ Year of presentation: 2009
- ❸ Title of presentation: The Disinterested Government: An Interpretation of China's Economic Success in the Reform Era
- ❹ Descriptive label: Lecture
- ❺ Sponsoring institution: Trinity College
- ❻ Location: Hartford, CT

Document Example:

The Disinterested Government: An Interpretation of China's Economic Success in the Reform Era

Professor Yang Yao ❶ ❸
 Deputy Director
 China Center for Economic Research at Beijing University

Abstract: The Department of Economics
 The Center for Urban and Global Studies
 The Department of Political Science and
 The O'Neill Asia Cum Laude Endowment

cordially invites you to the

"The Disinterested Government: An Interpretation of China's Economic Success in the Reform Era"

presented by:

Professor Yang Yao
 Editor of China Economic Quarterly and Deputy Director of the China Center for Economic Research at Beijing University

When: Monday, February 23, 2009 at 4:10 pm ❷
❹

Where: The Reese Room in The Smith House

Trinity College
HARTFORD, CONNECTICUT

❺
❻

Proper Reference Format:

Yao, Yang. 2009. The Disinterested Government: An Interpretation of China's Economic Success in the Reform Era. February 23. Lecture presented at Trinity College, Hartford.

Citation in Text:

Author-date citations are placed in the context of discussion and are formatted like so, using the author's last name and the date of publication.

(Yao 2009)

Alternatively, you can integrate the citation into the sentence by means of narrative, like so:

Yang Yao (2009) addressed the governmental role of China's economic success.