THE ADVENTURES OF COUNT BORUWLASKI, AN 18TH-CENTURY POLISH DWARF
The nobly-born Joseph Boruwlaski became one of the most famous dwarfs in history. During his 98 years, he travelled from the laps of kings to the cages of circus-masters, wrote an autobiography translated into three languages, and was depicted by a famous caricaturist. Come to this talk and find out his extraordinary history, about what it meant to be a dwarf, to be Polish, and to be Boruwlaski in particular--and learn what he had to say about his astonishing life.
